

Performance Evaluation for Management Personnel Plan Employees

GUIDELINES

SUMMARY

Management Personnel Plan employees shall be evaluated after six months and one year of services, and subsequently at one year intervals. Evaluation shall also form the basis for recommendations for management development, professional leaves or other activities related to career development and upward mobility.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

- 1. SELF-ASSESSMENT OF TOP GOALS AND ACCOMPLISHMENT: Each employee will prepare a self-assessment regarding the top value-added accomplishments and contributions over this review period (e.g., goals accomplished, problems solved, value added program changes), attaching it to this evaluation. The self-assessment form is included in this document and should be no longer than 5 pages when complete.
- 2. PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES: Establish objectives that are specific, measurable, relevant, and time-based. Metrics are to be developed for each objective to establish clear measurement criteria, which will be used in the assessment of performance and achievement.
- 3. LEADERSHIP COMPETENCY AND ACHIEVEMENT: Assess the employee's accomplishments and contributions as they relate to the following competencies. Please use the Manager's Comments on Performance section to provide clarifying remarks, areas in need of improvement, or to highlight particular accomplishments or strengths.

Performance Ratings:

Exceptional Performance - is significant overachievement of expectations.

Above Expectations Performance - is often beyond expectations.

Satisfactory Performance - consistently fulfills expectations.

Improvement Needed Performance - is inconsistent performance, with expectations only partially achieved. Deficiencies should be addressed in the performance appraisal.

Unsatisfactory Performance - is the failure to achieve the majority of expectations. Deficiencies should be specifically addressed in the performance appraisal.

- 4. REVIEW PERFORMANCE EVALUATION WITH EMPLOYEE: The evaluation should be discussed with the employee. Both the supervisor (reviewer) and the employee should sign the evaluation form. Signing the form does not mean the employee agrees with the evaluation; it means that the evaluation has been shared with the employee. A copy shall be provided to them at the conclusion of the discussion, a copy shall be retained by the recommending administrator, and one copy shall be provided to The Center for Human Resources.
